

Assessment Rubric: Adapting to the LandSpending the Surplus

Level 4

- Formulates clear and accurate lists and encourages others to participate.
- Assumes a creative approach in selecting the pictures and designing the chart.
- Recognizes the differences between regions and has an appreciation for how these differences influence how people live. Is able to communicate that to others.

Level 3

- Formulates clear and accurate lists.
- Helps find the pictures and plan the chart.
- Has a general understanding of how the environment influences how people live and is able to communicate that to others.

Level 2

- Needs some help to formulate list.
- May help plan the chart but has trouble selecting pictures.
- May have a general understanding of human adaptation but is unable to communicate that to others.

Level 1

- Requires one-on-one attention in order to add to the lists or select pictures.
- Needs considerable prompting to participate in the activity.
- Is unclear on the concept of human adaptation.