Vocabulary

habitat  the place where an organism lives
  Fish, turtles, frogs, and water plants live in a pond habitat.

organism  a living thing
  A real frog is an organism. A plastic frog is not an organism.
Organisms

O ________________________________

R ________________________________

G ________________________________

A ________________________________

N ________________________________

I ________________________________

S ________________________________

M ________________________________

S ________________________________
Living or Nonliving?

Is each of these things living or nonliving?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>book</th>
<th>earthworm</th>
<th>nail</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>dead leaf</td>
<td>car</td>
<td>dog</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>grass</td>
<td>penny</td>
<td>dead flower</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Write the living things in the left circle. Write the nonliving things in the right circle.

Where will you put the things that were once alive?

!Venn diagram
Section 1 Assessment

Vocabulary

1. Circle the picture of an organism.

!Ladybug
!Baseball Cap

2. Circle the pictures of two things in a squirrel’s habitat.

!Shoe
!Conker
!Oak Leaf

An Organism’s Habitat

Classify

3. Look at the living and nonliving things your teacher gives you. Put all the living things in Tray 1. Put all the nonliving things in Tray 2.