

GRADE 3

Title	Unit	Level	GRL
John James Audubon, American Painter            A simple biography of John J. Audobon’s young life, his love of art, and his success in drawing American wildlife.	1	Below	I, J
Oceans of Grass: The Prairie            A short natural history of the American Midwestern prairies and the lives of settlers there.	1	On	M
The Grand Coulee Dam            The story of the Grand Coulee Dam – where it is, why the Columbia was damned, and how they built it.	1	Above	P, Q
Who was John James Audubon?	1	Language Support
Surrender at Yorktown            The story of Britain’s crucial surrender of Yorktown ending the American Revolution.	2	Below	I, J
Americans of the Midwest: The Potawatomi            Culture, history, daily life, and leaders of the Potawatomi, in the past and today.	2	On	M
Sor Juana Inez de la Cruz            A colonial woman who worked for the Spanish viceroy then became a nun who spent her life writing poetry and championing women’s rights to an education.	2	Above	P, Q
End of the American Revolution	2	Language Support
Traveling by Train            History of trains and the development of railroad travel in the U.S.	3	Below	I, J
Jane Addams            A biography of the nation’s first famous social worker who was pivotal in Chicago’s settlement house movement.	3	On	M
A Day in the Life of the Great Plains            This story compares/contrasts the daily life of Lakota Indians and settlers in the mid-1800s.	3	Above	P, Q
Trains	3	Language Support
Marie-Maud Becomes a Citizen            The story of a Haitian girl whose parents gain U.S. citizenship.	4	Below	I, J

Social Studies Nonfiction Leveled Readers

HUGHTON MIFFLIN

A Day with the Mayor Follow a mayor as she goes through a typical day – meeting with business owners and city council members, and visiting a school.	4	On	M
Daniel Inouye: Senator from Hawaii A story of a Senator’s courageous life living in Honolulu and serving in battle.	4	Above	P, Q
Marie-Maud	4	Language Support
The Assembly Line A story about the invention of the car and Ford’s concept of interchangeable parts.	5	Below	I, J
Andrew Carnegie Follow Andrew Carnegie’s childhood amongst weavers in Scotland, to life as a young factory working in industrial Pittsburgh, and then his status as the richest man in America.	5	On	M
A Present for LaNita Deandra opens her piggy bank, filled with allowance money from doing chores, then comparison shops to make the best choice for a gift.	5	Above	P, Q
Henry Ford and His Idea	5	Language Support
Veterans’ Day The history of America’s holiday honoring people who have fought in battle.	6	Below	I, J
Noura Comes to Cleveland A young Pakistani girl leaves Lahore with her family to live in Cleveland.	6	On	M
W.E.B. DuBois and the Fight for a Just Society Follow civil rights activist DuBois from his childhood in Massachusetts to his position as the first African American to get a Ph.D. from Harvard.	6	Above	P, Q
A National Holiday	6	Language Support

* Language Support titles coming soon.