

Regroup Ones as Tens

TAKS Objective 1
TEKS 2.3B, 2.3C

Read. Then solve.

1. The bead store is having a sale. Alex chooses 3 boxes of green beads that have 10 beads to a box. He also chooses 1 box with 10 black beads. How many beads in all does he have?

_____ beads

3. Chloe buys 5 boxes of beads that have 10 beads to a box. She also buys 14 extra-large beads. How many beads does Chloe buy?

_____ beads

5. Carlos needs 60 beads for his project. If he buys 4 packages of 10 small beads and 15 large beads, will he have enough? Explain why or why not.

---

---

2. Sarah buys 4 boxes of blue beads that have 10 beads in each box. She also buys 18 loose red beads. How many beads does Sarah have in all?

_____ beads

4. David buys 4 boxes of beads that have 10 beads each. Then he buys 11 extra-large beads. How many beads does he buy in all?

_____ beads

6. Sam's necklace has 17 striped beads. He wants his necklace to have between 50 and 60 beads on it. If he buys beads in boxes of 10, how many more boxes of beads should he buy?

_____ boxes of beads