It’s a Date

You can use counting on to find dates on a calendar. School starts on September 4. Ring that number on the calendar.

1. Risa plans to go to the library 3 days after school starts. Ring the date she will go to the library. What date will that be? September _____

2. Risa plans to visit her grandmother 2 days after going to the library. Ring the date of her visit. What date will that be? September _____

3. Six days after her visit is her friend’s cookout. Ring the date of the cookout. What date will that be? September _____

4. How many days after the cookout is September 21?

5. Explain Your Thinking Write how you found the number of days in exercise 4.
It’s a Date

You can use counting on to find dates on a calendar. School starts on September 4. Ring that number on the calendar.

1. Risa plans to go to the library 3 days after school starts. Ring the date she will go to the library. What date will that be? September 7

2. Risa plans to visit her grandmother 2 days after going to the library. Ring the date of her visit. What date will that be? September 9

3. Six days after her visit is her friend’s cookout. Ring the date of the cookout. What date will that be? September 15

4. How many days after the cookout is September 21?
   6 days

5. Explain Your Thinking  Write how you found the number of days in exercise 4.
   Answers will vary. Check children’s work. Possible answer:
   I started on September 15 and began counting on until I landed on September 21. It is 6 days after.