

Challenge

It's a Date

You can use counting on to find dates on a calendar. School starts on September 4. Ring that number on the calendar.

S	M	T	W	T	F	S
					1	2
3	4	5	6	7	8	9
10	11	12	13	14	15	16
17	18	19	20	21	22	23
24	25	26	27	28	29	30

- Risa plans to go to the library 3 days after school starts. Ring the date she will go to the library. What date will that be? September _____
- Risa plans to visit her grandmother 2 days after going to the library. Ring the date of her visit. What date will that be? September _____
- Six days after her visit is her friend's cookout. Ring the date of the cookout. What date will that be? September _____
- How many days after the cookout is September 21? _____
- Explain Your Thinking Write how you found the number of days in exercise 4.

Challenge

It's a Date

You can use counting on to find dates on a calendar. School starts on September 4. Ring that number on the calendar.

S	M	T	W	T	F	S
					1	2
3	4	5	6	7	8	9
10	11	12	13	14	15	16
17	18	19	20	21	22	23
24	25	26	27	28	29	30

- Risa plans to go to the library 3 days after school starts. Ring the date she will go to the library. What date will that be? September 7
- Risa plans to visit her grandmother 2 days after going to the library. Ring the date of her visit. What date will that be? September 9
- Six days after her visit is her friend's cookout. Ring the date of the cookout. What date will that be? September 15
- How many days after the cookout is September 21?
6 days

- Explain Your Thinking Write how you found the number of days in exercise 4.

Answers will vary. Check children's work. Possible answer:

I started on September 15 and began counting on until I landed on September 21. It is 6 days after.