

Name _____ Date _____

Description of Investigation and Student Report
Be an Investigator

Look at the Venn diagram and the statements that go with it. Fill in the blanks in the statements. Then make a Venn diagram, write statements for it with blanks, and tell how the blanks should be filled in.

Information

Copyright © Houghton Mifflin Company. All rights reserved.

Name _____ Date _____

Be an InvestigatorStudent Report*Statements

1. If a number is negative and divisible by 5, it should go in Region _____.
2. If a number is positive and not divisible by 5, it should go in Region _____.
3. Regions _____ and _____ will always be empty.
4. The number -25 goes in Region _____.
5. The number 24 goes in Region _____.

This is how I filled in the statements about the Venn diagram.

1. If a number is negative and divisible by five, it should go in Region _____.
2. If a number is positive and not divisible by five, it should go in Region _____.
3. Regions _____ and _____ will always be empty.
4. The number -25 goes in Region _____.
5. The number 24 goes in Region _____.

This is my Venn diagram and statements to go with it: