

Problem-Solving Application: Decide How to Write the Quotient

Problem Some Girl Scouts wove string to make friendship bracelets. The Girl Scouts used a total of 33 feet of string to make 12 bracelets. How much string was used for each bracelet?

1. What is the question?

2. How will you find the answer?

3. How will you write the quotient? Explain your choice.

4. Solve the problem.

Problem The Girl Scouts also made 17 clay bowls and painted them. They displayed them on the shelves in their meeting room. Each shelf held 5 bowls. The remaining bowls were placed on a table. How many bowls were on the table?

5. What are you asked to find?

6. How will you find the answer?

7. Solve the problem.
