A plural noun is a word that names more than one person, place, thing, or idea. Regular plural nouns are formed by adding -s or -es to a singular noun.

object/objects box/boxes face/faces sketch/sketches

Irregular plural nouns are not made by adding -s or -es. You must memorize the spelling of these plural forms.

man/men mouse/mice vertex/vertices radius/radii

Study each figure below. Complete the sentence by writing a number and a plural noun. The first one has been done for you.

1. A solid figure has length, width, and height. Here are 3 solid figures.

2. Each flat surface of a solid figure is called a face. This solid figure has
   _______.

3. An edge is a line segment where two faces meet. This solid figure has
   _______.

4. A point where three or more edges meet is called a vertex. This solid figure has
   _______.

5. Each face on the top or bottom is called a base. This solid figure has
   _______. 