

base-ten

A place-value system in which each digit has a value that is ten times greater than the digit to the right of it.