

area

The number of square units that cover a figure completely without overlapping.