

rotation

A transformation that involves a turning movement of a figure about a point.