

scatter plot

A collection of data that shows the correlation or relationship between two sets of data.