

double line graph

A graph that is used to compare two data sets by means of two broken lines.