

Plants Answer Key

Across

- the scientific study of plants
- the loose top layer of the earth's surface in which plant life can grow
- a narrow tube that forms the framework of a leaf
- a living thing, such as a flower or a tree, that is not an animal, that cannot usually move from place to place, and that can usually make its own food
- to scatter or plant to produce a crop

Down

- a green pigment found in plants
- plants that eat insects
- a byproduct of photosynthesis
- the main supporting part of a plant
- any of a large group of plants that grow in water