

Insect Lives Answer Key

1. Insects are classified in the group “Herbivores.”
False
2. Spider silk is so strong that spider webs last weeks or even months.
False
3. Immature mosquitoes live in pools of water.
True
4. Some wasps lay their eggs inside the bodies of other insects.
True
5. “Millipede” means “thousand legs,” and millipedes actually have that many legs.
False
6. Insects are more closely related to lobsters than to lizards.
True
7. Paper wasps got their name because they collect scraps of paper to make cocoons.
False
8. Some kinds of insects have colors or shapes that camouflage them from predators.
True
9. Some kinds of insects are harmless, but look like different, harmful insects.
True
10. Insects evolved a very long time ago, even earlier than worms.
False