

Unit 10 Overview

Measurement, Rounding, and Shapes

UNIT 10 REVIEWS AND BUILDS on children's understanding of the measurement of inches and centimeters as units of length. Previously, children took measurements from drawings of rulers with objects placed next to them. In this unit, children take active charge of the measuring process and position the rulers themselves. Additional activities have children use measurement to distinguish squares from other rectangles and record measurements in tables.

