

Unit F Overview

Three-Dimensional Figures

IN UNIT F, students continue to develop their knowledge of three-dimensional figures. Activities include building from nets, naming, and describing prisms, cones, pyramids, and cylinders. Students apply their knowledge of solid figures to designing a package and to sorting solid figures according to their own sorting rule. In the final lesson of the unit, students investigate the relationship between a circle and a sphere.

