

Unit 1 Overview

Basic Multiplication and Division

UNIT 1 DEVELOPS students' concepts of equal groups, arrays, area, combinations, and comparisons as they use basic multiplication and division in real-world situations. Students examine relationships between the two operations. They identify patterns in multiples for each number 1 to 12 and practice to build fluency. They use algebraic notation to examine more complex problems and functions.

