

Unit 5 Overview

Multiplication and Division with Fractions

IN UNIT 5 students begin by working with unit fractions to help them lay the groundwork for multiplying and dividing with any fraction. They work on activities using fraction bars and number lines to help build links between multiplication and addition and between multiplication and division. Students also develop algorithms for multiplying and dividing fractions. Students have opportunities to apply their understanding of multiplying and dividing fractions in real-life, problem-solving situations.

