

Spelling Game

Comic Relief

Players: pairs of 2

You need: list of Review Words in Units 31–35, paper, pencil, crayons

How to play: Players use Spelling words to create captions.

- Pairs of players draw a cartoon or a comic strip with sentences to go along with their drawing. They must use at least six words from the Review Word lists in their sentences.
- Pairs show their cartoon or comic strip to the whole group and read aloud the words that go with the drawing.
- The other players write down each Review Word they hear. Pairs then read aloud the Review Words they used, so the other players can check their lists.
- Then all players vote to pick the funniest and most creative cartoon or comic strip.

At the bizarre bazaar Jane found a progression of strange pieces of furniture. Their illogical appearance inspired her to write a sonnet.
