

How Does Weather Change Each Day?

Main Idea and Details

The graphic organizer consists of five circles. A central circle is labeled "Main Idea" and contains three horizontal lines for writing. Surrounding this central circle are four smaller circles, each labeled "Detail". Each of these four detail circles contains three horizontal lines for writing. The circles are connected to the central circle by short lines.