

Climate and Weather

Cause:

Earth's shape and the tilt of its axis cause the Sun's rays to strike different parts of Earth's surface at different angles.

Effect:

Cause:

Unequal heating of two different surface types such as land and sea occurs.

Effect:

Cause:

Warm air near the ocean surface rises, and cooler air from above takes its place.

Effect:

Cause:

Two air masses meet.

Effect: