

Observing Crickets, Page 2

Answer the questions.

Draw:

Legs How many legs does a cricket have? _____ A cricket can jump 20 times its body length. Measure the length of one cricket: _____ cm How far can the cricket jump? _____ cm	front leg back leg
Antennas (on head) Are the antennas long or short? _____ Antennas sense smell.	one antenna
Wings Observe the wings. Do all crickets have wings? _____ Male wings have ridges that scrape together to make a chirp. Females cannot make sounds.	wing
Nymphs Nymphs (young insects) have no wings at first and later develop them. How many nymphs are in your cup? _____	nymph
Jaws Observe the cricket eating. The jaws are on the outside. Draw the cricket's mouth with the jaws. How many jaws does the cricket have? _____	head with jaws