

Vocabulary

air resistance the force that makes an object move slower through air

Particles of air push against objects that move through the air. When an object moves through air, air resistance slows it down.

gravity the force that pulls objects toward Earth

All objects fall to the ground because of gravity.