

Optical Fibers

Light is reflected by a mirror at the same angle it hits the mirror.

- 1 Draw the line of reflected light in the second picture above. Make sure that the angle of the reflected light is equal to the angle of the light that hits the mirror.
- 2 Draw a path to show how light travels through the optical fiber below. The path has been started for you.

