

UNIT 2 The First People

Find Out To learn more about the American Indians of your area, visit your local historical society. Use the Interview Organizer to write questions that will help you interview a historian.

1. Did American Indians ever live in your area? Do they still live there today? Name the American Indian nations.

2. In what ways did they use the natural resources?

3. How did you learn the answers to the questions? Explain the steps you took to find your sources.

4. Critical Thinking: Compare Compare the ways your community uses natural resources to the way in which American Indians used them.
