

UNIT 4 Services

Find Out Use your town or city government's website or visit your library to learn about the services the government provides.

1. Which services does your town or city government offer to its citizens?

2. Which of these services do you think is most important to the people who live in your community?

3. Draw and label a diagram that shows the different branches of your community government and the services that they offer.

