Everything Changes

The Big Idea

In what ways do people and things change over time?

- Content Standard 5.0 History involves people, events, and issues. The student will evaluate evidence to develop comparative and causal analyses and to interpret primary sources. He or she will construct sound historical arguments and perspectives on which informed decisions in contemporary life can be based.

Learn About It

In this unit your child will learn:

- the difference between past, present, and future
- about American Indians, Pilgrims, and American independence
- about American heroes
- how transportation and communication have changed over time

Here is one way you can help your child learn:

Family Activity

Communication Chart Together with your child, create a chart that lists important phone numbers, cell phone and pager numbers, and email addresses of family members, neighbors, and emergency services. Post the chart in a place where your child can use it to find information quickly.
