

Family Newsletter for Unit 4

The Early Twentieth Century

The Big Idea

How do different people show their courage?

- ➊ Content Standard 2.0 Globalization of the economy, the explosion of population growth, technological changes and international competition compel students to understand, both personally and globally, the production, distribution, and consumption of goods and services.
- ➋ Content Standard 5.0 History involves people, events, and issues. Students will evaluate evidence to develop comparative and causal analyses, and to interpret primary sources. They will construct sound historical arguments and perspectives on which informed decisions in contemporary life can be based.

Learn About It

In this unit, your child will learn:

- the causes of World War I and how the United States became involved;
- about the stock market crash, the Great Depression, and the New Deal.

Here is a way you can help your child learn:

Family Activity

New Styles During the 1920s, many new styles of music, clothes, and literature became fashionable. What new styles are being created right now? Encourage your child to make a list of new styles.
