

civilization

religion

agriculture

irrigation

migration

surplus

pollution

ancient

Noun A group of people living together who have systems of government, religion, and culture. (Chapter 2, Lesson 1)	Noun Farming or growing plants. (Chapter 2, Lesson 1)	Noun A movement from one region to another. (Chapter 2, Lesson 1)	Noun Anything that makes the soil, air, or water dirty and unhealthy. (Chapter 1, Lesson 3)
Noun The belief in one or more gods. (Chapter 2, Lesson 2)	Noun A way of supplying water to crops with streams, ditches, or pipes. (Chapter 2, Lesson 2)	Noun Extra. (Chapter 2, Lesson 2)	Adjective Long ago. (Chapter 2, Lesson 1)