

ordinance

ratify

territory

compromise

Articles of Confederation

republic

constitution

federal

Noun A law. (Chapter 10, Lesson 1)
Noun Land ruled by a national government but which has no representatives in the government. (Chapter 10, Lesson 1)
Noun The United States' first plan for a national government. (Chapter 10, Lesson 1)
Noun A written plan for government. (Chapter 10, Lesson 1)
Verb To accept. (Chapter 10, Lesson 2)
Noun A settlement in which both sides give up something they want. (Chapter 10, Lesson 2)
Noun A government in which the citizens elect leaders to represent them. (Chapter 10, Lesson 2)
Noun A system in which states share power with the central government. (Chapter 10, Lesson 2)	