

tariff

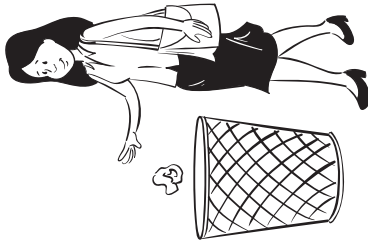

discrimination

volunteer abolitionist responsibility

sectionalism

register

Amendment X
 The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states, respectively, or to the people

states' rights

Noun
A tax on imported goods.

(Chapter 3, Lesson 1)

Noun
Someone who helps other people without being paid.

(Chapter 2, Lesson 3)

Noun
A duty that someone is expected to fulfill.

(Chapter 2, Lesson 3)

Verb
To sign up.

(Chapter 2, Lesson 3)

Noun
The unfair treatment of particular groups.

(Chapter 3, Lesson 2)

Noun
Someone who joined the movement to abolish, or end, slavery.

(Chapter 3, Lesson 2)

Noun
Loyalty to one part of the country.

(Chapter 3, Lesson 1)

Noun
The idea that states, not the federal government, should make the final decisions about matters that affect them.

(Chapter 3, Lesson 1)