

economic boom

stock market

isolationism

stock

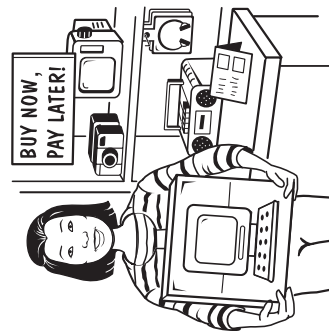

armistice

division of labor

propaganda

credit

Noun
A period of fast economic growth.

(Chapter 8, Lesson 1)

Noun
The belief that the United States should stay out of world events.

(Chapter 7, Lesson 3)

Noun
An agreement to stop fighting.

(Chapter 7, Lesson 3)

Noun
Information that is used to shape people's thinking.

(Chapter 7, Lesson 3)

Noun
The place where stocks are bought and sold.

(Chapter 8, Lesson 1)

Noun
A share of ownership in a company.

(Chapter 8, Lesson 1)

Noun
When workers perform different parts of a large task.

(Chapter 8, Lesson 1)

Noun
An arrangement that allows a buyer to take a purchase home and pay for it over time.

(Chapter 8, Lesson 1)