Writing Rules 6-10

The page contains five sets of handwriting practice lines. Each set consists of three vertical lines: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. The first set shows a dashed lowercase letter 'e' with a starting dot and an arrow indicating a counter-clockwise stroke. The second set shows a dashed lowercase letter 'r' with a starting dot and arrows indicating a vertical stroke up, a diagonal stroke down to the right, and a horizontal stroke to the right. The third set shows a dashed lowercase letter '8' with starting dots and arrows indicating two counter-clockwise loops. The fourth set shows a dashed lowercase letter 'c' with a starting dot and arrows indicating a counter-clockwise stroke. The fifth set shows a dashed lowercase letter 'o' with a starting dot and arrows indicating a counter-clockwise stroke, followed by a dashed lowercase letter 'p' with a starting dot and arrows indicating a vertical stroke down and a horizontal stroke to the right.
