Writing Rules 16-20

The image shows five vertical writing lines, each consisting of a solid left line, a dashed middle line, and a solid right line. Each line contains a dashed letter with arrows indicating the stroke order and direction for tracing. The letters are: 1. The number 6, starting with a horizontal stroke from left to right, then a curved stroke starting from the left, going up and around to the right. 2. The number 9, starting with a vertical stroke from bottom to top, then a curved stroke starting from the top, going right and down. 3. The number 8, starting with a horizontal stroke from left to right, then a circular stroke starting from the left, going up, around, and down. 4. The number 4, starting with a horizontal stroke from left to right, then a circular stroke starting from the left, going up, around, and down, followed by a vertical stroke from top to bottom. 5. The number 2, starting with a horizontal stroke from left to right, then a curved stroke starting from the left, going up and around to the right, and finally a vertical stroke from top to bottom.
