Practice Test

Your teacher will tell you how to do these pages.

Make It Funny

It was late, and Laurie was very tired. She looked at what she had written and tossed the sheet of paper into the wastebasket, along with all the others.

She was supposed to write a funny story for homework, but she just couldn't think of anything funny. Maybe it was because she was in a bad mood.

A strange sound came from the corner of the room. Laurie looked over and saw her cat Buzz. He was running in circles chasing his tail. Suddenly Laurie knew what she would write about.

1. What will Laurie probably write about?

Go On
Name _______________________________________

2. What is Laurie’s problem?
   ○ a. She doesn’t want to do any more homework.
   ○ b. She doesn’t have any more paper.
   ○ c. She is frightened by a strange sound.
   ○ d. She has trouble writing her story.

3. Why is it hard for Laurie to solve her problem?
   ○ a. She is hungry.
   ○ b. She is in a bad mood.
   ○ c. Her cat is bothering her.
   ○ d. She is afraid of getting a bad grade.
Make It Funny

It was late, and Laurie was very tired. She looked at what she had written and tossed the sheet of paper into the wastebasket, along with all the others.

She was supposed to write a funny story for homework, but she just couldn't think of anything funny. Maybe it was because she was in a bad mood.

A strange sound came from the corner of the room. Laurie looked over and saw her cat Buzz. He was running in circles chasing his tail. Suddenly Laurie knew what she would write about.

1. What will Laurie probably write about?

   her cat chasing his tail
2. What is Laurie’s problem?
   - a. She doesn’t want to do any more homework.
   - b. She doesn’t have any more paper.
   - c. She is frightened by a strange sound.
   - d. She has trouble writing her story.

3. Why is it hard for Laurie to solve her problem?
   - a. She is hungry.
   - b. She is in a bad mood.
   - c. Her cat is bothering her.
   - d. She is afraid of getting a bad grade.