Bug Profile Sheet
Directions: Choose a bug or insect. Do research and complete the worksheet. Then on another sheet of paper, write a letter from the bug to humankind. You can use one of the sentence starters below if you like.

Bug Facts
Bug’s Common Name: ___________________________________________________
Bug’s Scientific Name: ___________________________________________________
Family: _______________________________________________________________
Habitat: _______________________________________________________________
Diet: _________________________________________________________________
Four Descriptive Traits:
1. ________________________________________________________________
2. ________________________________________________________________
3. ________________________________________________________________
4. ________________________________________________________________
Enemies or Threats: _____________________________________________________
Lifespan: ______________________________________________________________

Sentence Starters
Something that might surprise you is....
Something I don't understand about humans is....
What really bugs me is....
One of my favorite things to do is....
Something I'm really good at is....
Something that scares me is....
My scientific name is __________, but you can call me ____________________.