Assessment Rubric: A Celebration Timeline

Level 4
- Assumes a creative approach in selecting the events and designing the timeline.
- Self-motivated and encourages others to participate.
- Understands that although national holidays are shared by the entire country, and family celebrations reflect more personal concerns, both focus on meaningful events, important individuals, and special groups.

Level 3
- Helps select events and designs the timeline.
- Follows directions independently.
- Can identify general commonalities and differences between national holidays and family celebrations. May have difficulty expressing these ideas to others.

Level 2
- May help design the timeline but has trouble identifying and locating events.
- Needs prompting to remain focused on the task at hand.
- Can only identify similarities and differences with help from others.

Level 1
- Needs help to identify national holidays and family celebrations.
- Requires one-on-one attention in order to remain involved in the activity.
- Is unable to identify similarities and differences.