Use a Graph

Data in a graph can help you solve a problem. You can use the data to add. You can use the data to compare.

You can tell that the most juices are grapefruit. You can tell that there are more orange juices than apple juices.

Use data in the graph to solve.

1. How many children like to go on a trip?
   _____ children

2. How many children like to play video games and read?
   _____ children

3. How many more children like to play with friends than play video games?
   _____ more