Regroup Ones as Tens

Read. Then solve.

1. The Bead Store is having a sale. Chloe buys 5 boxes of small beads that have 10 beads to a box. She also buys 14 boxes of extra-large beads that have one bead to a box. How many beads does Chloe buy?

______ beads

2. David buys beads at a sale. He buys 4 boxes of beads that have 10 beads each. Then he buys 11 extra-large beads. How many beads does he buy in all?

______ beads

3. Sarah buys 60 blue glass beads. She also buys 18 large red beads. How many beads does Sarah have in all?

______ beads

4. Alex chooses 8 boxes of green beads that have 10 beads each. Then he chooses one box with 10 black beads. How many beads does he have in all?

______ black beads