Instructions

Think of one activity you know how to do, such as figure skating, cooking, or shooting a basketball. Write an essay for your teacher that explains all about how to do this activity. Be sure to include step-by-step instructions so that someone else could do this activity.

You can start a collection. Many people like these things. You could collect bottle caps, matchboxes, stamps, shells, rocks, baseball cards, or kinds of decorations.

They go in a box. You can show them to everyone.
