Wavelength is the distance between one crest and the next. You see different wavelengths of light as different colors.

Amplitude is the distance from the resting point to a crest or trough. Different amplitudes of light differ in brightness.