<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>culture</th>
<th>trade</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>vegetation</td>
<td>artifact</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>capital</td>
<td>agriculture</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>industry</td>
<td>architect</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Noun
The exchange of resources, goods, or services.
(Chapter 3, Lesson 1)

Noun
An object made by humans.
(Chapter 3, Lesson 1)

Noun
The business of farming.
(Chapter 3, Lesson 1)

Noun
A person who designs buildings.
(Chapter 2, Lesson 3)

Noun
The way of life shared by a group of people.
(Chapter 2, Lesson 3)

Noun
The type of plants that grow in a region.
(Chapter 2, Lesson 3)

Noun
The city where a state or national government is located.
(Chapter 2, Lesson 2)

Noun
A group of businesses that provides one kind of product or service.
(Chapter 2, Lesson 2)

Use with North Carolina