<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>democracy</th>
<th>university</th>
<th>heritage</th>
<th>immigrant</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ethnic group</td>
<td>refugee</td>
<td>migrant worker</td>
<td>discrimination</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Noun: People who share the same culture.

Noun: A person who moves from one country to another.

Noun: Traditions that people have honored for many years.

Noun: A school system made up of different colleges that offer programs in many subjects.

Noun: A form of government in which the power belongs to the people.

Noun: A person who moves from place to place to do farm work.

Noun: The unequal treatment of people because they belong to a certain group.

Noun: A person who escapes war or other danger to find safety somewhere else.

Noun: A form of government in which the power belongs to the people.