The future is the part of time that has not happened yet.

Today is this day.

Tomorrow is the day after today.
Yesterday is the day before today.

History is a story about the past.

A family tree is a chart that shows the people in a family.